RHYTHM

The world is a-hum with rhythm and rhyme,
Like a grandfather clock ticking the time.
To dancer, to student, whatever you do,
Rhythm is always a true part of you.

Nature has rhythms that artists can see:
The pattern of leaves on a forest tree,
The bright yellow daisy with striped bumble bee,
The cool little stream that slips out of sight,
The beautiful stars making rhythms with light,
The flapping beat of a bird in flight,
The patter of raindrops in the night,
The feathery snowflakes that glisten and glow,
The rhythm of tides that ebb and flow,
The whispering wind that blows up a gale,
The wild, lashing storm that reaps harvest of hail.

Rhythms of industry, beating, repeating:
Presses pounding, whistles sounding,
Hammers banging, steel plates clanging,
Huge cranes swinging, anvils ringing,
Freight cars bumping, oil wells pumping,
Drilling—boring—motors roaring.

Bugles blare, war rhythms flare:
G.I.'s drilling, quotas filling,
Banners flying, sweethearts sighing,
Crosses white in pale moonlight—
Rhythms of war,
What are they for?

School bells ring, old rhythms bring:
Students shrieking, lockers creaking,
Teachers hurrying, freshies scurrying,
Classes meeting, old friends greeting,
Typists tapping, hallguards napping,
Artists sketching, rhythms catching,
Flutists trilling, music thrilling,
Rooters yelling, loud cheers swelling,
Signals crackling, fullbacks tackling,
Swimmers diving, cute gals jiving,
Wide skirts flaring, beebop blaring,
Dance bands playing, couples swaying.

* * * *

Seniors leaving, thrilled, yet grieving,
New lives finding, new ties binding.

Rhythm, rhythm everywhere,
Always beating, always there,
Rhythm's in each thing, each sound,
Rhythm makes the world go 'round.

Lois Gotz,
Marie Indurante,
Sally Schrom

George,
Always remember the fun
we had in the attendance office and thanks again for taking us home in your "bad cat car".
good luck,
Marty Davis.

Ave Et Vale

June 11, 1956

Education should prepare for living. Kelvyn Park is built upon this idea. In the program of studies each student broadens his general background and prepares by his choice of studies either for further education in college or for entrance into his chosen vocation.

Perhaps the most important part of training for living is that of learning to work and live with other people. The students at Kelvyn practice this art through participation in clubs and other school activities.

We at Kelvyn wish you further success in learning and working with other people as you leave us to pursue your chosen careers.

Edna M. Siebert,
Principal

Honors, headaches, joy and grief,
Rhythms 'round our Kelvyn chief.

Just before Christmas, Kelvyn Park bade farewell to Mr. Wallace H. Fristoe, departing to take up his new duties as chief executive at the Morgan Park High School. During his brief sojourn of sixteen months at Kelvyn, Mr. Fristoe's quiet efficiency and pleasant smile won many friends.

It was then our privilege to welcome as our new principal, Mrs. Edna M. Siebert, a dedicated educator, prominent in professional and civic organizations on the city, state, and national levels.

Administrative Assistants and Office Staff

MR. NORMAN L. SAMUELSON
Assistant Principal

Figures click for this statistician,
K.P's. programming mathematician.

The most rapidly and efficiently organized high school in the city of Chicago! That's the reputation of Kelvyn Park, and we take off our hats to the genial gentleman in the assistant principal's office, whose skill in program-making has long since become tradition. Statistical consultant to the National Honor Society, guest speaker at many school affairs, and active in various other phases of school life, Mr. Samuelson is an indispensable factor in the Kelvyn Park organization.

Philosophical Fancies

Why

I wonder why the sun's so bright?
I wonder where it goes at night?
I wonder why the rain whirls 'round
And hits my pane with a splashing sound?

I wonder why the trees are bare
And then in spring the leaves are there?
I wonder whether I'll get to see Him who causes these things to be?

—Thomas Trepcyk

Wonders of Nature

When twilight draws her curtain
And pins it with a star,
She sets the scene for lovers
Upon the earth so far.

The moon comes out a-glowing
With soft and tender light,
And all of nature's creatures
Do marvel at the sight.

—Carol Kreuger

Don't You Agree

If I could but wander wherever I please,
If I could but rest under Persian Palm trees,
A happier person I'm sure I would be.
Don't you agree?
If I with a Greek or a Tartar could walk,
If of our problems and hopes we could talk,
A wiser person I'm sure I would be.
Don't you agree?
If I could remember that under the skin,
On all of God's earth, all people are kin.
A more peaceful world I'm sure this would be,
Don't you agree?

—Allen Adams

The Seasons

Surely It's Spring

When a crocus first lifts its head,
When a robin's first seen on the wing,
When a squirrel comes out of its bed,
Then I know that, surely, its spring.

—Roberta Moerle

Summer Sun

The summer sun is shining bright
While here in school I stay.
And though I try with all my might,
My wandering mind will stray.

I want to run and play all day
Beneath that shining sun,
But teacher thinks another way:
My school work must be done!

—Marie Indurante

Autumn Leaves

Red, yellow, orange and gold,
They fall from trees in colors bold.
The wind comes along and whirls them around;
They fly through the air and cover the ground.
I like to walk down shady streets
And hear dry leaves crunch under my feet.
Red, yellow, orange and gold,
They fall from trees in colors bold.

—Georgia Woytash

Snow

The city seems to be asleep;
Its blanket is the snow so deep.
It's covered everything in sight
And sparkles in the bright moonlight.

It falls so quietly and still;
It always gives me such a thrill
To walk on snow along the street
And feel it soft beneath my feet.

—Joan Horton

Nature Lyrics

Especially For Me

The little red bird
In the poplar tree
Is singing a song
Especially for me.

The wind is blowing
Through the poplar tree,
And the tree is growing
Especially for me.
The bright yellow flowers
Growing 'round the tree,
I know they are growing
Especially for me.

—Barbara Wegner

Gifts Of Nature

A bright orange leaf,
A violet of darkest blue,
And a glistening snowflake
Are nature's gifts to you.

—Lois Gotz

The Football Team

Coach: MR. ROBERT FRANK

Rhythm in the cheers and yells!
Rhythm in each athlete dwells.

Although not too succesful from the standpoint of the scoreboard, the fighting spirit and hard work of the 1955 football team will long be remembered. Coach Robert Frank, hampered by a small squad, did a fine job of guiding the team. Always pushing for spirited performance was Captain Kenneth Fritz, whose enthusiastic leadership was an inspiration to his team mates. Individual honors went to Robert Hoehn, most valuable lineman, outstanding for his great blocking, and Lee Fitzgibbons, most valuable back, distinguished for his sensational ball carrying. Credit is also due, however, to the whole team, both regulars and "bench warmers", and to the peppy, popular cheerleaders and terrific tumblers.

The Football Season

Call those signals, tackle, kick!
Rhythm makes the best teams click.

Hit 'em high, hit 'em low!
Go, team, go!

The pre-season football schedule was sparked by the traditional game with our old rival, Foreman. Next on the calendar came a close contest with Tuley.

Enthusiastically supported by our loyal rooting section, the fighting Panthers opened the regular season by taking on Senn. Then followed encounters with the strong elevens of Amundsen and Taft. High point of the season was the Marshall game, with plenty of exciting moments and many thrilling memories.

"Yeah, Kelvyn!" was always the resounding echo regardless of foul weather or sore knees.

Tennis balls whiz in the spring!

This year the hard-hitting Panther tennis team was composed of Fred Reis, Richard Hunt, Tom Fredrickson, Ray Glorch, and the doubles combination of Ronald Ellingson and Roy Andersen. The first four men participated in the state play-offs at Champaign, Illinois, May 19th through 20th. Under the capable co-captaincy of Fred Reis and Richard Hunt, the season started out with a bang, the boys winning their first two matches easily.

Just like clockwork, ticks this team.
They've got rhythm, lots of steam!

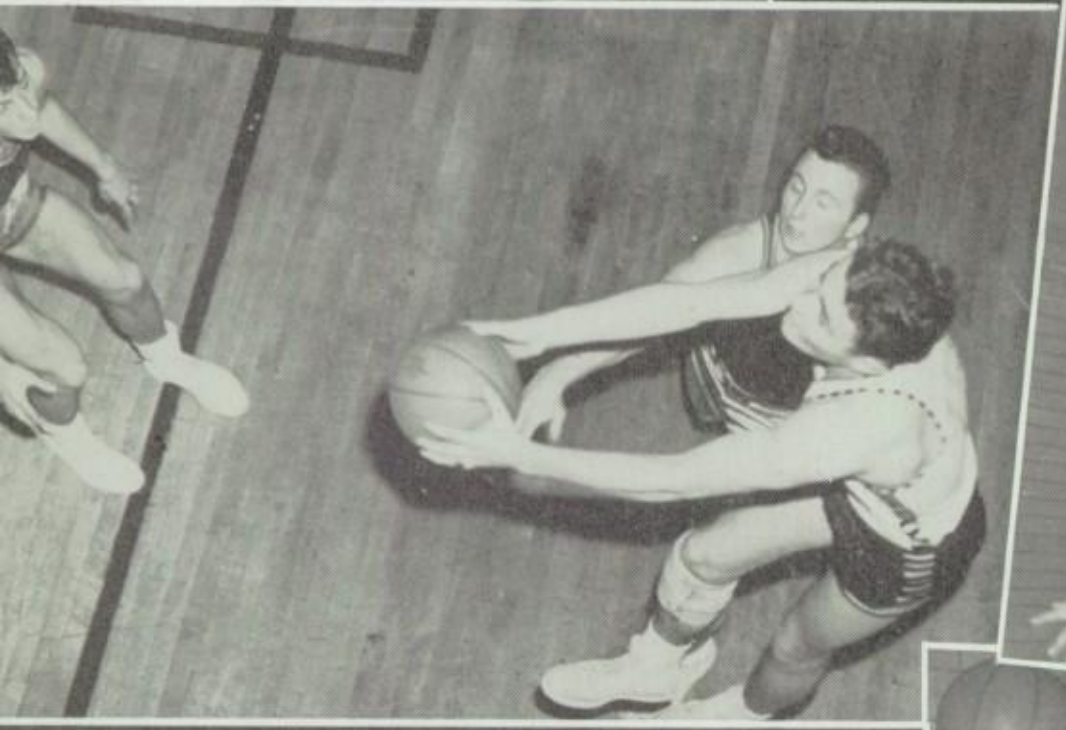
Fred Reis, captain of the basketball team, led the scoring during the season with 150 points. Richard Hunt, Richard Bellizi, Stu Mann, and Tom Fredrickson also piled up impressive totals. The loss of Bill Buchholz and Stu Mann at the January graduation was a great setback for the Panthers, who at that time had a record of two wins and three losses. This year's team had only three returning lettermen who did not graduate in January: Fred Reis, Tom Frederickson and Richard Hunt. The lack of experienced material handicapped the team throughout the season.

The Basketball Season

Coach: MR. ROBERT FRANK

Dribble, pass! Let's make that throw!
Rhythm does it. Go, team go!

This past year, the Panther basketball team scored victories over Tuley and Manley. The west section, which has the roughest teams in the city, produces perennially an overdose of competition. The Panthers had fair luck at home, winning two of five games, but on the road the cagers were less effective.



Good luck George, you're a great guy

The baseball team of 1956 was inexperienced and young. With a number of boys returning next year, the outlook should be gratifying in the future. The team will lose the services of Captain Don Christey, Mike O'Brien, Don Sorrentino, Ray Empero and Karl Stevens by graduation. Those returning for another year or more of competition are James Adell, Leonard Brandt, James Chiakulas, Arthur Friess, John Harbison, Le Roy Klimek, Terry O'Brien, Walter Petran, Lawrence Shell, Rodney Stenlund, Robert Storozuk, Robert Wu, Robert Romano, Richard Bellizzi and Manager Richard Kocsis. With a number of boys returning and with the experience of this past season, Kelvyn Park should make a fine showing in the future.

Cross Section of Kelvyn Life

We work hard, have lots of fun—

Rhythms of many a job well done!

"Don't be a creep—
Our boy for veep!"

"Copper craft by Kelvyn."

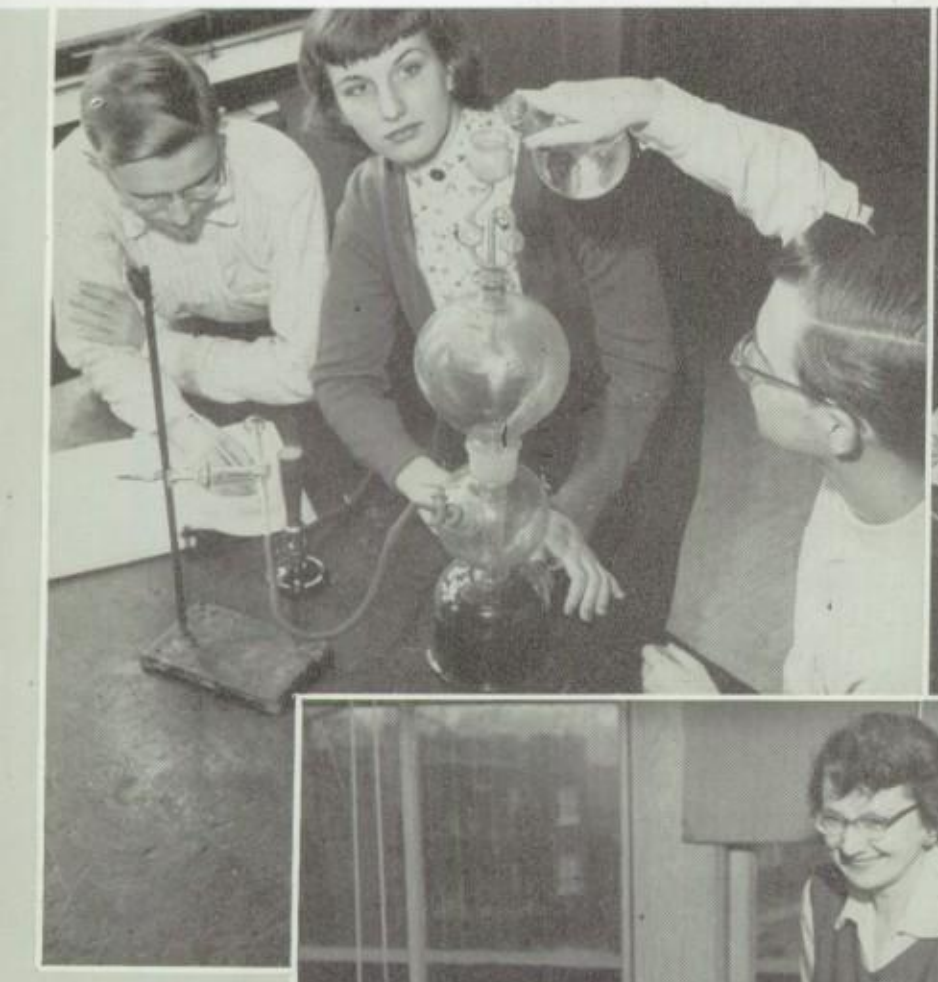
"Every second counts."

"This year's model."

"The music goes 'round and 'round."

"Auf Wiedersehen, my dears!"

At Work and At Play



Varied facets of student life—
Sundry scenes with rhythm rife.

"Watch that reaction!" . . . . . a busy laboratory . . . . . adjustment accomplished! . . . . . honoring the National Honor Society . . . . . studious silhouette . . . . . playful pattern . . . . . sunlight and shadow.

GREETINGS TO OUR KELVYN PARK NEIGHBORS

In addition to the many pleasant contacts we have during the year, we at Illinois Tool Works especially look forward to Christmas time when Mr. Leonard Polk and members of the chorus entertain us at noon and again in the evening with carols, "Rudolph, The Red Nose 'One'," and other Christmas songs.

The many Kelvyn Park graduates here join us all in sending greetings and congratulations to each one in the graduating class of 1956.
